HUNGER HOUSE

by Loka Kanarp & Carl-Michael Edenborg

The fifth Borderline Press release is a ghost story by two of Sweden's brightest talents. Hunger House is a tale of two sisters wrenched from what they know and placed in an alien environment. Feeling neglected and isolated, they do what two kids would do; they go and explore all the places their foster parents warned them to avoid. Sometimes, regardless of how horrible an adult might be, there is a reason for their warnings...

Borderline Press is proud to have this book, which since its initial publication in Sweden is now available in France, Denmark, Germany and many other European countries.
